

Budget & Council Tax Precept for 2021/22

Chailey Parish Council has approved its budget and set the precept (the amount paid by households towards the cost of running the Parish) for the next financial year starting on 1st April 2021.

Expenditure is £75,648. This will be funded by the precept, sundry income, and transfers from reserves. The precept for 2021/22 has been set at £68,388. This means the amount to be paid by a household with a property in Band D for Council tax purposes will be an additional £1.56 for the year.

The additional amount payable will be lower for properties in Council tax Bands A to C and higher for those in Bands E and above.
